

I totally support XM's ability to provide the kind of programming that I want and deserve. I feel so strongly about that I will vote against any politician who takes an adverse stand. Please focus on things that count, the economy and national security. Leave satellite radio alone.